How My Aunt Lives Green

My Aunt Jenny lives more green by cleaning the beach. She cleans the beach for three reasons. First, it is fun to clean the beach. You can clean with your family. Next, you can help the sea animals. They can eat bags or plastic and die. Finally, cleaning the beach will help the future. Kids will have a clean world when they grow up. Clearly, my Aunt Jenny has three good reasons for cleaning the beach.

Planning for and Writing About an Interview

Example 1:

Subject: School Custodian

Questions—

1. Why do you like your job?
2. What parts are easy and what parts are hard?
3. How do you stay so friendly with so many kids?
4. Could kids help more?
5. What is the best part of working at this school?
6. What was the biggest emergency or job you had?
7. What hobbies or activities do you like to do after school is over?
8. What message would you give the students and the teachers?

Janitor Jim

Janitor Jim makes me curious. He is always so happy and I don't know why. So I asked him. Jim says he is happy because he likes his job. He likes to see all of us kids every day. He says when we smile, it makes him smile. Jim is also happy because he gets to keep things clean. He says, "I like to scare dirt away with my mop!" He told me that he likes to look at the gym floor when it is all sparkly and clean. Now I know why Janitor Jim is so happy.

Planning for and Writing About an Interview

Example 1:

Subject: Teaching at an Elementary School

Questions—

1. What made you decide to be a teacher?
2. Were you a good student in grade school?
3. What classes did you have to take to be a teacher?
4. Where did you go to elementary school?
5. Did you ever cause trouble in school?
6. What is the easiest and toughest part of being a teacher?
7. What would you like to change about schools? About our school?
8. What is the most important thing for all students to know about school?

Best Teacher Ever

At our school, we have one of the best teachers ever. He is a great teacher because he gets excited about teaching us something new. Sometimes he waves his arms because he is all excited when he talks. He loves when kids ask questions. Mr. Collins is also a great teacher because he really likes kids and wants to get to know each one of us. He says he learned that from his second-grade teacher way back when. He told me that to be a teacher, you have to get good grades, graduate from high school, and go to college. Another reason Mr. Collins is so great is that he loves the subjects he teaches. He said, "I enjoy teaching science the most. I like doing experiments!" Mr. Collins has been at our school for eight years. Cross your fingers that you get Mr. Collins, the greatest teacher ever.
